

Live from Rome, Italy
David McCallum, SJ:

The Heart of Leadership: Love, Courage, & Vulnerability

LE MOYNE
Greatness meets Goodness®

"Be leaders wherever it behooves you to be. Leaders of thought, leaders of action, leaders of joy, leaders of hope, leaders of construction of a better world." - Pope Francis

Please join us for a reflective workshop on March 13 led by David McCallum, S.J., recently named Executive Director of the Discerning Leadership Program. All proceeds will support the Albany and Syracuse regions of the Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC).

Sponsored by LeMoyne College and the Discerning Leadership Program, the webinar is presented by the IVC and features an interactive discussion by Fr. McCallum, on "The Heart of Leadership: Love, Courage, and Vulnerability." The 90-minute program, which begins at 10 am ET, includes contemplative prayer, leadership presentation, individual reflection, and concludes with a question-and-answer period. The workshop is an opportunity to:

- Reflect on your leadership and service spirit
- Call forth the benefits of leading with an open heart
- Discern how to lead the way in the spirit of "Fratelli Tutti"

Registration donation is $25 per person. All registered participants will receive an edited video of the workshop as well as selected materials. Click here for Registration Details.

During his time at LeMoyne College, Fr. McCallum led the development of a formal partnership with the Ignatian Volunteer Corps. Learn more about our featured speaker here by clicking here.

Questions? Contact IVC directors: Kathleen Burgess \(Albany\) or Linda Zimmerman \(Syracuse\).

IVC is a national non-profit service organization that provides men and women, most aged 50 or better, with opportunities to serve others, to address social injustice, and to transform lives. More than 600 volunteers serve in 22 regions across the US. Learn more about IVC here.